Personal Banking.

As at 27 March 2021.

Helpful tips to reduce account costs.

Choose the right account.

Different accounts have different fees and charges, and some accounts will be more suited to your needs.

See the personal bank account transaction fees table at the back of this brochure for more information on fees for different accounts, or visit a branch and let us help you find the best one for you.

Use Westpac One® online banking.

With Westpac One, access is free and you're able to pay your bills, view your balance and manage your finances online, anywhere and anytime. Loading new automatic payments is free when using online banking.

Close unused accounts.

Consider closing accounts you don't use often, especially if you're being charged a monthly account fee for them.

Who qualifies for fee exemptions?

Under 19 year olds.

If you're under 19 years old you can have up to two Youth Accounts free of monthly maintenance, paper statement and transaction fees[^] including a Westpac Everyday account and selected savings accounts. On the Westpac Everyday, Westpac Bonus Saver or Westpac Bonus Saver PIE accounts, you won't be charged the paper statement fee or manual withdrawal fee*. Please see westpac.co.nz/youth-accounts for more details. Once you turn 19, fees will apply.

School leavers and graduates.

If you're leaving high school and heading into full-time employment, studying at a tertiary institution or as an apprentice, one of our School Leaver Accounts could be right for you. If you're graduating, our Graduate Account could be just what you need as you enter the work force. On the Westpac Everyday account, you won't be charged the paper statement fee or manual withdrawal fee*.

These accounts are designed to help keep down the cost of everyday banking. See westpac.co.nz/tertiary-account and westpac.co.nz/graduate-account

Superannuitants.

If you have a Westpac Everyday, Westpac Bonus Saver or Westpac Bonus Saver PIE accounts and you're 65 years or older, or you're receiving a New Zealand National Superannuation, UK Retirement Pension or New Zealand War Pension, you won't be charged a paper statement fee or manual withdrawal fees.*

For all other accounts, where you're receiving a New Zealand National Superannuation, UK Retirement Pension or New Zealand War Pension and it's paid into that nominated Westpac account, you won't be charged the monthly maintenance and transaction fees.*

Refer to the Fee exemptions section of the transaction table to see what account types you can choose from.

[^] Note: Service fees outlined in this brochure will still apply.
