SECTION C: AUTHORISATION

I/We

- Acknowledge that, where required, securities held at present or which may be held in the future to secure the account holder's direct or contingent liabilities are also held to secure any liability incurred through the use of the account.
- Certify that all information supplied in this application is true, correct and complete in every respect and understand that if it is not true, correct and complete, this application may be declined.

What you have authorised. You authorise:

- The signatories named in this authority to operate this account and to do everything relating to your relationship with Westpac New Zealand Limited ("Westpac") for this account.
- Westpac to make all necessary enquiries (now or throughout the life of any account issued as a consequence of this application) concerning the account holder's (and/or any director's) credit record, residence, employment, financial status, and any information provided by you in this application for the purposes related to provision of credit to the account holder, from whatever source Westpac considers appropriate, including any credit reporting agency with which Westpac has a subscriber agreement.

- Any party approached to provide such information to Westpac.
- Westpac to disclose the account holder's relevant information (including default information) to any person Westpac may appoint to collect any outstanding debt.

Receiving and acting on instructions by fax, phone, electronically or other means

As part of doing business, Westpac may communicate with you by fax, telephone, electronically or otherwise and may accept telephone, facsimile, electronic or other instructions in the course of the bank/customer relationship. However, Westpac:

- is not obliged to accept them; and
- will not be liable to you, and any other party if the instructions are unauthorised, forged or fraudulently given and Westpac could not have reasonably detected that from the instructions received.

Indemnify Westpac

To the maximum extent permitted by law you will indemnify Westpac for any losses incurred in relation to acting on such instructions.
