1 Accessing your money

1.1 Drawing your Loan

Unless otherwise agreed by Westpac NZ you can draw your Loan in one lump sum or in instalments.

1.2 Your Loan Account

Amounts drawn on your Loan will be debited to a Choices Everyday Loan Account (Loan Account) opened in your name.

1.3 Operating your banking facility

You may elect to have all of your banking transactions including your Loan payments conducted through your Loan Account, or you may nominate any other of your Westpac NZ accounts to be debited with your Loan payments.

1.4 Initial Unpaid Balance

If the initial unpaid balance as disclosed in your Loan Summary is showing a debit balance, the amount and description of each advance, charge or payments accounted for in the initial unpaid balance referred to are disclosed in your bank statements. If any additional advances, charges or payments have been made since the date of your last statement these will appear in your next statement.

2 Payments and interest

2.1 Payments

You will make all payments at any Westpac NZ branch or at any other place Westpac NZ specifies, and in the manner that Westpac NZ specifies.

2.2 Irregular payment dates

If a date for a payment would fall on a weekend or a national public holiday in New Zealand, then payments will be payable on the next business day (usually the Monday).

2.3 Limit

You are not to exceed the specified Limit on your Loan.

Within your Limit, you can draw more than once, postpone repayments, capitalise interest and redraw amounts prepaid, and complete any other normal banking transactions.

2.4 Limit Reductions and Loan Repayments (if any)

Your Limit will reduce in the way set out in the Limit Reductions section (as varied from time to time) of your Loan Summary. Westpac NZ may also change your Limit or Limit Reduction from time to time in accordance with your Agreement (see clause 3.2). On each day your Limit reduces you promise to repay any amount necessary to ensure that the balance of your Loan Account does not exceed your Limit.

2.5 Loan, Limit Reduction and payment details

You acknowledge that the Limit Reduction (if any), interest and other payment details set out in your Loan Summary and any further payment details relative to your Agreement are worked out as at the date of your Loan Summary. They are disclosed for the purposes of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003, where this is applicable. Those details are indicative; they may differ from the actual amounts payable under your Agreement. Reasons for this may include public holidays, default, variations in interest rates, amounts less than your Limit being drawn, early repayment or future changes in interest rates.

2.6 Prepaying

You may at any time prepay all or part of your Loan.

Any prepayment you make will not affect your obligation to make repayments in the way set out in the Limit Reductions section (if any) of your Loan Summary.

2.7 Changing the features of your Loan

You may at any time apply to Westpac NZ to change the features of your Loan including, but not limited to varying the term of your Loan. Westpac NZ can (at its complete discretion) agree to (including subject to conditions), or refuse, any request you might make. If it does so, it will only be bound by those changes once you receive from it, or its agent, written confirmation of those changes. Westpac NZ may charge you a fee each time a change is made.

2.8 Security

Your Loan, as well as any other Outstanding Moneys you may owe to Westpac NZ now or in the future under any other existing or future Bank Document, including under any guarantee you have granted in favour of Westpac NZ, will be secured by all existing and future Security Interests, and any other Security, granted to Westpac NZ in respect of your obligations, including (if any):

- any Security listed in a Schedule of Securities attached to your Loan Summary;
- any further Security which Westpac NZ at any time advises you that it requires; and
- any Security transferred or assigned to any transferee which under the terms of the Security continue to secure your Loan notwithstanding:
 - the transfer or assignment of the Security to such transferee; or
 - the transfer or assignment of any other moneys you may owe to Westpac NZ to such transferee.

This may constitute a change to your arrangements with Westpac NZ under another Bank Document.

2.9 Fees, costs and charges

You will pay Westpac NZ the following:

- the fees, costs and charges included in your Loan Summary. Any establishment charge is payable on execution of your Loan Summary whether or not your Loan is drawn down;
- any costs incurred by Westpac NZ as a result of Westpac NZ allowing you to make a drawdown other than in accordance with clause 1.1;
- all other fees and charges for the preparation, execution, completion and registration of each Bank Document and any subsequent consent, approval, waiver, amendment or release;
- all other fees and charges for transactions and incidental services provided to you by Westpac NZ relating to your Loan, Loan Account, Security or services provided according to Westpac NZ's usual practice from time to time.

Westpac NZ's fees, costs and charges may vary from time to time. For current information on Westpac NZ's fees, costs and charges, including the account maintenance fee, you should refer to Westpac NZ's Transaction and Service Fees brochure which is available on request from any Westpac NZ branch or at westpac.co.nz.

2.10 Interest

a) Interest rate calculation

You will pay Westpac NZ interest on the amount of the debit balance (as at the end of each day) in your Loan Account. Interest will be calculated daily by applying to that amount the interest rate which applies at the time divided by 365. Westpac NZ may from time to time determine when a day ends for the purpose of calculating interest under your Agreement.

b) Annual Floating Interest Rate

The Annual Floating Interest Rate is a variable rate which is based on a Base Rate.

Westpac NZ's published Base Rates are available at westpac.co.nz and are advertised from time to time in major newspapers when changes occur. In addition, Base Rates are available by contacting your Westpac NZ branch or Relationship Manager.

Westpac NZ may change the Base Rate, replace it with a new Base Rate, or change the Modifier or the Margin, from time to time.

c) Default interest rate

If you do not make any payment to effect a scheduled Limit reduction within 14 days of the due date, then the rate of interest applying to the payment that is in default for each day from that 14th day until that payment is made will be increased by the Default Margin.

d) Capitalising interest

You promise to pay interest in the way set out in the Interest Payments section of your Loan Summary. However, whenever the balance of your Loan Account is sufficiently below your Limit, you may choose to capitalise interest, in which case, if your interest payments are being debited from another Westpac NZ account, you will need to contact Westpac NZ to arrange for the interest to be debited to your Loan Account.

2.11 Non-Reducing Period

The Non-Reducing Period (if any) begins on (and includes) the Drawdown Date (or relevant Variation Date).

It will be at Westpac NZ's discretion to determine if a Non-Reducing Period can be extended or applied at any future date after your Loan is drawn.

2.12 Gross-up for Tax

You promise to make all payments without any deduction or withholding on account of any Tax whether imposed in New Zealand or elsewhere (except to the extent required by law). If:

- you are required by law to make any deduction or withholding from any payment: or
- Westpac NZ is required by law to make any payment on account of any Tax (other than Tax on overall net income of Westpac NZ), on or in relation to any amount received or receivable under your Agreement, the amount payable by you shall be increased to the extent necessary to ensure that, after the making of that deduction, withholding or payment, Westpac NZ receives and retains a net amount equal to the amount which it would have received and retained had no such deduction, withholding or payment been made.

You promise to deliver to Westpac NZ, on request, a receipt issued by the applicable taxation or other authority evidencing that such deduction or withholding has been made.

3 What you agree Westpac NZ may do

3.1 Refusal to lend

Westpac NZ is under no obligation to provide the initial amount of your Loan, provide any further advances (if any), or allow you to postpone repayments or capitalise interest if:

- an Event of Default or Potential Event of Default has occurred (regardless of whether or not it is continuing);
- any person who has given Security in relation to your Loan withdraws that Security, or stops its obligations under it; or
- after the first advance under your Loan, you do not fulfil any new requirements set by Westpac NZ at its option for a new advance, redrawing, postponement of repayment or interest capitalisation.

3.2 Changing the Limit Reductions and other terms

At any time after there is a change of interest rate Westpac NZ may at its discretion vary the size of any limit reductions and the number of reductions. At any time Westpac NZ may also at its discretion increase or reduce the amount of credit available by varying your Limit and vary the Interest Payments section set out in your Loan Summary (usually on the basis you will be making the same regular payments). Examples of when your Limit may change are, if:

- your financial position has changed, or is anticipated to change;
- you do not pay an amount when it is due;
- Westpac NZ is required to do so in order to comply with a court order or other legal or regulatory obligations; or
- there has been a reduction in the value of any Security which affects Westpac NZ's Security Interest.

Westpac NZ can also vary the term of your Loan. It may also do these things if you do not draw your full Limit. In any of these cases the amount of credit available, Limit, Limit Reduction, Term and Interest Payments sections of your Loan Summary must be taken to be amended accordingly. Notwithstanding this, Westpac NZ is entitled to require repayment of all amounts outstanding under your Agreement within the term specified in your Loan Summary.

3.3 Default

a) When you will be in default

You will be in default if:

- you fail to make a payment when due;
- you do not comply with any of your obligations under your Agreement, or you are in default under your Mortgage or any other Bank Document;
- at any time the balance of your Loan Account exceeds your Limit, including if Westpac NZ at its discretion reduces, or allows you to exceed your Limit, or continues to provide credit if your Loan has expired;
- anything you or a Guarantor have told or tell Westpac NZ, or any information you or a Guarantor have given or give Westpac NZ, is untrue, misleading or deceptive (including by omission) in a material respect;
- in Westpac NZ's opinion, you or any Guarantor have failed to disclose any material information and, within 5 business days of receiving notice from Westpac NZ of the suspected non-disclosure, you have not established, to Westpac NZ's satisfaction, that all material information was in fact disclosed;
- any Guarantor gives notice stopping its obligations or is in default under any Security or Bank Document, or a human Guarantor dies or ceases to be of full legal capacity;
- any of your or a Guarantor's other indebtedness becomes due and payable before its maturity or is not paid when due or after any applicable grace period;
- you or any Guarantor are unable, or are deemed or presumed to be unable, to pay your respective debts;
- you or any Guarantor are or become bankrupt, or any step is taken for the Bankruptcy of you or any Guarantor including being declared to be a corporation at risk under the Corporations (Investigation and Management) Act 1989 or the occurrence of a terminating event under the Limited Partnerships Act 2008;
- any Security over any of your or a Guarantor's property becomes enforceable;
- an order is made requiring you or any Guarantor, or any of your or their wholly owned subsidiaries, to pay any debts of another person (including a company);
- all or any part of your Agreement, the Security, or any Bank Document is terminated or is or becomes illegal, invalid, unenforceable or of limited force and effect;
- the entry into, or performance of obligations under, any Bank Document breaches any law or any obligation binding on you, any Guarantor, or your or their property; or
- anything has happened or happens which, in Westpac NZ's opinion, may have a Material Adverse Effect.

and if your Loan is in the name of a company or partnership:

- any execution, attachment, distress or other process is issued against any of your or a Guarantor's property: or
- in Westpac NZ's opinion, there is, or any step is taken towards, a material change in the direct or indirect ownership, management or control of you or any Guarantor including, in relation to a Limited Partnership, the removal, replacement, or addition of a General Partner or the amendment, variation, or revocation of the Partnership Agreement without Westpac NZ's consent.

b) What Westpac NZ can do if you are in default

If you are in default, Westpac NZ may do any one or more of the following, but it need not do so:

- require you to pay to Westpac NZ all Outstanding Moneys;
- increase the interest charged on the amounts in default in accordance with clause 2.10(c);
- terminate all Westpac NZ's obligations to you under your Agreement; or
- enforce the Mortgage or any other Security or any other Bank Document.

3.4 Accessing your Loan Account

You authorise Westpac NZ to make any drawing, payment, transfer, debiting or crediting contemplated under your Agreement. This applies whether you (or any person claiming to be you) initiate it by cheque, telephone, facsimile or by electronic means (for example, Phone Banking, Online Banking, Visa Cheque Card, EFTPOS, A.T.M., Westpac NZ debit card, Westpac NZ Visa or MasterCard).

a) Identity

Westpac NZ will take reasonable care to check the identity of a person who claims to give instructions on your behalf. However, Westpac NZ will not be liable to you for acting on any instructions which were not genuine. To the maximum extent permitted by law, you indemnify Westpac NZ against any action taken by it on instructions it reasonably believes were genuine, except if the Westpac NZ losses result directly from Westpac NZ's fraud or negligence.

b) Instructions

You acknowledge that Westpac NZ may accept telephone, facsimile or electronic instructions from you but is not obliged to accept them. However, to the extent permitted by law Westpac NZ will not be liable to you or any other party if the instructions are unauthorised, forged or fraudulently given and Westpac NZ could not reasonably have detected that from the instructions received. To the maximum extent permitted by law, you indemnify Westpac NZ for its losses in acting on such instructions, except if the Westpac NZ losses result directly from Westpac NZ's fraud or negligence.

c) Incorrect transactions

If Westpac NZ sends you a confirmation of a transaction, and the confirmation is wrong, you must immediately contact Westpac NZ.

3.5 Debiting your Loan Account

Westpac NZ may debit your Loan Account or any nominated account you choose with all amounts payable under your Agreement. If there are not enough funds in that nominated account, Westpac NZ may, but need not, debit your Loan Account with those amounts.

Westpac NZ may also debit your Loan Account or nominated account with such other amounts which you advise Westpac NZ (orally or in writing) from time to time.

3.6 Accessing money in other accounts

If you have any money in any account with Westpac NZ, then Westpac NZ can use it to pay Outstanding Moneys, but need not do so. If you are in default, Westpac NZ can use money which has not yet matured, and convert money in your account(s) in foreign currencies.

3.7 No right of set-off

To the maximum extent allowed by law, you give up any right to set-off any amounts Westpac NZ owes you against amounts you owe under your Agreement or any other Bank Document.

3.8 Use of money received from you

Westpac NZ can apply any money in any account with Westpac NZ or any other money received from you as it sees fit as between principal, interest and other amounts owing under your Agreement. This applies despite any instruction given by you to the contrary.

3.9 Transferring your Agreement

Westpac NZ can transfer or assign your Agreement, your Loan or any other Bank Document, to someone else. If it does, your Agreement, your Loan and any transferred Bank Document will apply to the transferee as if it were Westpac NZ, including the transferee having the rights to replace or change the Base Rate, the Modifier or the Margin for interest calculation. Westpac NZ can give any potential transferee, or anyone associated with any potential transferee, any information Westpac NZ has concerning you. To the maximum extent allowed by law, any transfer will be free of any set-off, equity or cross claim which you would have had against Westpac NZ or transferees of your Agreement or any other Bank Document but for this clause.

You may not transfer or assign your Agreement, your Loan, or any Bank Document to someone else unless you first get Westpac NZ's written consent. Westpac NZ may give such consent at its discretion.

3.10 Notification and disclosure

Any notices, including changes under this Agreement and disclosure required to be made under the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003, may be made by ordinary post or by facsimile or electronic means in accordance with the Westpac NZ General Terms and Conditions.

3.11 Disclosure to any Guarantor (if applicable)

You authorise Westpac NZ to disclose to the Guarantor:

- the terms, and any variation, of your Agreement, any other Bank Document and the Security (if relevant); and
- other information including the unpaid balance and any outstanding interest charge, payments due or made, any further advances and when an Event of Default has occurred.

4 As a company, sole trader or partnership

4.1 Capital maintenance (only applies if you are a company)

You will not, except to the extent Westpac NZ agrees otherwise:

- acquire or redeem any of your own shares;
- make any distribution (as defined in the Companies Act 1993) other than dividends paid out of profits;
- reduce or cancel the liability of any shareholder as contemplated by section 57 of the Companies Act 1993;
- give financial assistance for the purpose of the acquisition of your shares or your holding company's shares whether directly or indirectly;
- amalgamate with any other company; or
- enter into a major transaction (as defined in section 129 of the Companies Act 1993).

4.2 Insurance

You will insure and keep insured all your property (including stock and trade):

- against loss or damage by fire, earthquake, theft, burglary, weather damage, marine risks and other risks as specifically required by Westpac NZ from time to time; and
- for its full replacement value and against liability on account of injury or damage suffered by the public and against other risks (including risks to the environment), as specifically required by Westpac NZ from time to time and in the absence of specific requirement, as prudent in accordance with the best commercial practice.

4.3 Accounts

You will provide Westpac NZ:

- as soon as practicable (in any event not later than 120 days) after the close of each of your financial years, copies of your balance sheet and profit and loss account, and if relevant, your consolidated balance sheet and profit and loss accounts for that financial year, all of which must be audited unless Westpac NZ agrees otherwise; and
- promptly (and in any event within 7 days after a request by Westpac NZ) any other information in relation to your financial condition or business which Westpac NZ may reasonably request.

5 Legal issues

5.1 The law that applies

The laws of New Zealand apply to your Agreement. You accept the non-exclusive jurisdiction of its courts.

5.2 Certificate of amount owing

You agree that a certificate from Westpac NZ setting out the amount that you owe under your Agreement is proof that you owe the amount stated, unless you prove to the contrary.

Westpac New Zealand Limited

5.3 More than one borrower

If there is more than one of you (including where you are each trustees of one trust), each of you is individually liable for the full amount under your Agreement. You are still bound by your Agreement, even if anyone you thought was going to sign any document does not sign it, or any of you is not bound by it or is released from part or all of their obligations under it. You refers to each of you.

Anyone of you can make a drawdown, redraw, postpone repayments, capitalise interest, agree to an interest rate, or give any other instruction on behalf of each of you. Westpac NZ is not bound to act on instructions from one joint borrower on behalf of any other joint borrower but may do so in its discretion.

5.4 Anti-Money Laundering and Sanctions

Unless you have disclosed to Westpac NZ that you are acting in a trustee capacity or on behalf of another party, you warrant that you are acting solely on your own behalf in entering into your Agreement.

For each transaction conducted under your Agreement, you represent and warrant to Westpac NZ that, to the best of your knowledge, information and belief at the time the transaction takes place, the transaction will not breach any laws or regulations in New Zealand or any other country relevant to the transaction.

5.5 Choices Everyday account

Your Loan Account is conducted under the specific provisions of your Agreement and the Westpac NZ General Terms and Conditions, Transaction and Services Fees brochure and Opening Accounts form. A variation to the terms of these Terms and Conditions and your Loan Summary may require variation disclosure as required by the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003. The Terms and Conditions of the operation of your Loan Account or the Transaction and Service Fees brochure may be subject to amendment from time to time, and while such amendments do not require variation disclosure, under the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003, Westpac NZ will advise you of any changes.

5.6 Limitations on the liability of Westpac NZ and its officers and staff

To the extent permitted by law, neither Westpac NZ nor any of its officers, representatives or agents will be liable to you in respect of any conduct, omission, delay or breach of duty in the exercise or failure to exercise any of Westpac NZ's rights or powers (whether exercised by or on behalf of Westpac NZ) or for any loss (including consequential loss) which results. Westpac NZ, its officers, representatives and agents will only be liable to you for loss which arises directly from its, his or her own fraud or negligence.

5.7 Communications

Written, including electronic, communications can be sent to Westpac NZ at the address specified on the westpac.co.nz website under the Contact Us link.

5.8 Remedies

If Westpac NZ has not exercised any one or more of its rights under your Agreement or any other Bank Document, Westpac NZ has not waived those rights. The remedies available to Westpac NZ include those mentioned in your Agreement, each other Bank Document and any provided by law.

5.9 Your Liability as a Trustee – *applies to trustees of a trust only

The money payable under your Agreement includes all money owed by you in your capacity as a trustee of the trust (whether or not actually within your powers or properly authorised) as well as by any former, present or future trustee of the trust (in their capacity as trustee of the trust).

You confirm:

- you have the power to enter into your Agreement either under the terms of the trust document or under the powers given to you by the Trustee Act 1956;
- you have properly signed your Agreement in accordance with the terms of the trust;
- you have and will retain a right of indemnity from the trust assets; and
- any person acting in accordance with the authorities set out in the account operating authority has the same power to undertake any action as the trustees would have acting jointly.

The above are warranties, which means that Westpac NZ can take legal action against you if any are incorrect.

If you are an independent trustee Westpac NZ will only be entitled to recover the money payable under your Agreement from any of your personal property if it is not able to recover any of that money from the property of the trust because the warranties you gave above were incorrect. Westpac NZ will only be entitled to recover from your personal property the amount it would have recovered from the trust property had those warranties been correct. If you are not an independent trustee, Westpac NZ may seek to recover any of the moneys payable under your Agreement from your personal property as well as from trust property.

You are an "independent trustee" for the purposes of this clause unless you have any right to or interest in any of the property of the trust except in your capacity as trustee of the trust. For example, if you are a beneficiary of the trust then you are not an "independent trustee"

No new trustees will be added to the trust and no existing trustees will be permitted to retire, without Westpac NZ's prior written consent. Any new trustee will be required to join as a party to your obligations under your Agreement and any Security.

5.10 Merger

Nothing in your Agreement or any Bank Document is adversely affected merely because of the existence of any other Bank Document, or by any judgment, right or remedy against any person that Westpac NZ, or someone claiming through Westpac NZ, may have at any time.

5.11 Survival of obligations

Your obligations under clause 2.12 will survive termination of your Loan and payment or repayment of all Outstanding Moneys.

6 Exercise of Westpac NZ's discretion

When Westpac NZ exercises discretion under this Agreement it will do so in a reasonable and consistent way. Westpac NZ has provided some examples in this Agreement of when it may exercise a discretion.
